2. What do the pronouns in bold refer to?

It (line 9): the new rainforest

They (line 16): an International team of scientists

they (line 26): loggers

3. What makes a rainforest special and different from other forests?
Explain.

A rainforest grows near the Equator, which makes it the perfect habitat for the different and rare species of plants and animals.

4. How will the discoveries that the scientists made help protect the rainforest?

The scientists discovered the rainforest first, which will make it easier for them to protect it from loggers.

5. Do you think rainforests are important and should be preserved?
Why/Why not?

Suggested answer:

Rainforests are important and should be preserved because they provide a home to many plants and animals, and the trees in them provide a clean environment.

6. In your opinion, how can we contribute to the protection of rainforests?

Suggested answer:

We can protect rainforests by encouraging our classmates not to damage the environment and by raising money for organisations that work for the protection of the environment.
