Question Two: (30 points)

Read the following text carefully, and then in your ANSWER BOOKLET answer all the questions that follow. Your answers should be based on the text.

Ibn Bassal was a writer, a scientist and an engineer who lived in Al-Andalus in the eleventh century CE. His great passions were botany, which is the study of plants, and agriculture. He was a practical man and all of his writing came from his own 'hands-on' experience of working the land. One of the many things which Ibn Bassal achieved was A Book of Agriculture. The book consisted of sixteen chapters which explain how best to grow trees, fruit and vegetables, as well as herbs and the sweet-smelling flowers; perhaps the most famous chapter of all was the one that described how to treat different types of soil.

Ibn Bassal also worked out how to irrigate the land by finding underground water and digging wells. The influence of Ibn Bassal's book was enormous. As farmers down the generations followed his instructions and advice, the land became wonderfully fertile and produced more than enough food for the fast-growing population. Although his name is not widely known, Ibn Bassal's legacy to the world has been great.

2. There were two benefits for farmers who followed Ibn Bassal's instructions and advice. Write them down. (6 points)

Question Three: (30 points)

Read the following text carefully, and then in your ANSWER BOOKLET answer all the questions that follow. Your answers should be based on the text.

My name is Fatima Musa and I have worked as an interpreter for five years. Many students have emailed me about my work because they want to know what it would be like to do my job. So here is my reply. My job involves going to important conferences and seminars around the world. When a person speaks in English at a conference, I listen to what they say through headphones. I then translate into Arabic while the speaker is talking. I give the translation through headphones to other people at the meeting. This means that anyone in the room who speaks Arabic can understand what people are saying.

Is it an easy job? Not at all. English is not the same in all English- speaking countries. As well as knowing regional English, you also need to know a lot of specialist language. Unless you have a language degree, you will not be able to become an interpreter. Provided that you have a postgraduate qualification, you will probably get a job as an interpreter quite quickly. If you are successful, it is a secure and rewarding job.

1. What does Fatima's job involve? (6 points)
2. Besides knowing regional English, what does an interpreter need to know? (5 points)
3. Write down the sentence which shows that a job as an interpreter gives a personal satisfaction. (5 points)
4. Why have many students emailed Fatima Musa? (5 points)
5. What does the underlined word it refer to? (4 points)
6. Find a word in the text which means "a piece of equipment that you wear over ears to listen privately to the radio, music, etc...". (5 points)
